ABOUT ME

My name is Alessio Mancinelli, a knowledge-hungry & music-lover young guy with a great passion for computer science. Videogames pushed me to deepen this field and to choose it as a profession. I completed my Master Degree in Computer Science in July 2021 at the University of Perugia with a thesis about Explainable Artificial Intelligence. In my spare time, i enjoy being a guitarist and a home cook.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Master's Degree

University of Perugia [2019 – 2021]

Address: Computer Science Intelligent And Mobile Computing,

Final grade : 110 cum laude

Thesis: An argumentative explanation of Machine Learning Outcomes

Development of an Explainable Artificial Intelligence model that, thanks to the use of Argumentation Framework, allowed to provide an explanation for the predictions given by Machine Learning algorithms.

Skills: Python, Html, Css, Javascript, JQuery, Cytoscape, Flask, NetworkX, Pandas

Bachelor Degree

University of Perugia [2016 – 2019]

Address: Computer Science,

Final grade : 108

Thesis: Models of user behavior in an academic Learning Management System

Research and development of two Machine Learning models that were able to predict the outcome of a student's exam based on its behavior within the academic platform.

Skills: Python, Pandas, Keras, Scikit-learn, Data Analysis

Scientific Diploma

Roselli Rasetti Technical Institute [2011 – 2016]

Address: Information Technology and Telecommunications,
